

Announcement on Research “Health disparity of NCDs among residence in rural area, Cambodia; a descriptive study.”

Sunrise Japan Hospital Phnom Penh will conduct the following research. This research will be conducted according to relevant research ethics guidelines after being reviewed and approved by the National Ethics Committee for health research.

Project period: From after get approval from ethics committee to December, 2021

[Research title]

Health disparity of NCDs among residence in rural area, Cambodia; a descriptive study.

[Purpose]

The object of this study was to identify the Health disparity of NCDs (non-communicable disease) among rural residents who are challenging to access essential health services by analyzing the data of the free health checkup.

[Research Method]

We analysis the data which was obtained at a free medical health checkup at Prey Veng province for identify the health disparity and improving the resident health. We will analysis the association between patents characteristics and patient’s health problem of NCDS. The data of will be anonymized and be kept at Sunrise Japan Hospital confidentially.

[Research institution name]

Sunrise Japan Hospital Phnom Penh
Sangkat Chroy Changvar, Phnom Penh, Cambodia

[Handling of personal information]

If you would like to know more detailed information on research methods and results, or you were not allow using your answer of questionnaire to the research, please contact the following inquiries. If you were not allow using the data, you will not get any medical advantages.

[Address to contact]

Yurie Kobashi
Sunrise Japan Hospital Phnom Penh
Email: kobashi.yurie@sunrise-hs.com